Article 2

Activities and Long-term Focus

NEWTON College is a higher education institution specializing in vocational Bachelor's study programs as well as lifelong learning programs in the field of Economic subjects in particular.

Accredited Bachelor's programs provide education in full-time or distance study programs with a standard length of 3 years.

Lifelong learning programs cover short- and medium-term training courses primarily of postgraduate form aimed at developing knowledge and skills, particularly in the fields of business economics, management, finance, marketing, and business.

NEWTON College organizes, implements, and supports scientific, research, development, and other creative activities relating, expanding, and complementary to the focus of educational activities. The focus of the activities provides in detail the current Long-term Plan for Educational, Research, Development, and Other Creative Activities of NEWTON College.

NEWTON College pays special attention to projects and activities carried out under conditions of intensive cooperation with business and public entities.

To support educational, scientific, research, development, and other creative activities and overall support for the harmonious development of students and academics, graduates, participants in lifelong learning courses and other staff, NEWTON College focuses on building and developing the following activities and services:

- information services providing access to library and journal collections and electronic information, as well as access to the Internet network,
- voluntary sports, leisure fitness, and cultural activities,
- social activities providing the students with accommodation support and appropriate help for disabled and socially deprived students.

NEWTON College ensures:

- the quality of all the activities carried out, in particular the internal evaluation of the quality of the educational, creative, and related activities,
- continuous College development,
- internationalization and international cooperation in the field of education and other activities,
- a diversified approach to education,
- cooperation with external partners from entrepreneurs and public administration institutions in order to transfer knowledge from/to business practice,
- cooperation with other educational institutions, public administration institutions, and other entities in order to comply with Section 1 of the Act,
- building the professional and social authority of a higher education institution.

Article 3

Internal Regulations and Other NEWTON College Standards

The NEWTON College Status represents the internal regulation of NEWTON College (hereinafter referred to as the "Internal Regulation") as defined by the relevant provisions of the Act subject to registration by the Ministry as amended. The Statutory Body discusses and approves the internal regulation.

Other NEWTON College standards include::

- the standards which statutory body discussed and approved, in particular, study and examination regulations, scholarship regulations, disciplinary regulations, rules of procedure of the Academic Council, and rules of procedure of the Internal Evaluation Board,
- the directives and regulations issued by the Chancellor or the Vice-Chancellor for Finance and Administration after being discussed and approved by the statutory body,
- the measures, decisions, and methodological instructions issued by the Chancellor or the Vice-Chancellor for Finance and Administration.

PART TWOADMISSION PROCEDURE AND COURSE OF STUDY

Article 4

Admission Procedure

NEWTON College organizes the admissions following the relevant provisions as amended by the Act (§48 to 50).

The admission procedure may vary depending on the individual study programs of NEWTON College.

The admission procedure usually takes the form of individual motivational interviews, which may include an oral or written entrance examination.

The Statutory Body of NEWTON College determines, following the Act and this Internal Regulation, the form, and course of the admission procedure, including the manner and deadlines for applying for study and specific conditions for the admission of individual study programs at NEWTON College. The form and course of the admission procedure, including the manner and deadlines for application submission and the specific conditions for the admission of individual study programs at NEWTON College, are determined by the Statutory Body of NEWTON College following the Act and the NC Internal Regulation.

In the framework of international treaties, the Czech Republic binds to, the conditions for the admission of foreigners stated in the Statute of NC apply appropriately with possible modification of the admission procedure schedule, particularly concerning the verification of Czech language knowledge or the verification process of the achieved education.

Article 5

Admission Procedure

The admission procedure starts with the delivery of the future student's application form for the study program at NEWTON College.

As part of the application form, the applicant may also choose a specific specialization of the study program of interest, or he/she may choose the specialization during the admission procedure.

NEWTON College communicates with the study applicants mainly electronically.

The applicants for study need not take the admission examination mainly based on their previous study results and activities or due to reasons of special consideration. The Chancellor of NEWTON College decides on the waiver of the admission examination.

Article 6

Conditions for Admission to Study

A prerequisite for admission to NEWTON College is the fulfillment of the relevant requirements, as described in §48 of the Act.

Admission of an applicant to study the selected study program is further conditional upon successful completion of the admission procedure in the form determined by the Statutory Body of NEWTON College.

Successful completion of the admission procedure means the completion of all individual parts of the admission procedure, as well as the fulfillment of all admission conditions set by the Chancellor for the applicants of the selected study program.

One of the conditions for the admission of an applicant to study in a foreign-language study program may be the successful completion of the admission examination in the language.

One of the conditions for the admission of an applicant to study in a Czech-language study program may be the successful completion of the admission examination in Czech.

NEWTON College may set a fee for admission procedures.

If the applicant fails to pay the fee for the admission procedure within the set deadline and form, he/she has not fulfilled the condition for admission to study at NEWTON College.

An applicant committing fraudulent conduct during the admission procedure will not be admitted to NEWTON College.

Article 7

Study Admission

The Chancellor decides on admission to NEWTON College.

The admission decision is issued no later than thirty days after verifying the last of the admission conditions of NEWTON College.

The applicant may appeal against the decision within thirty days from the date of its notification. The Appellate Body is the Chancellor who reviews the contested decision following the §50, par.8 of the Act.

The Chancellor reviews the compliance of the contested decision and the proceedings, before the decision, with legal regulations, the internal regulations of NEWTON College, and the stipulated admission conditions.

The decision on admission to study is delivered to the successful applicants in electronic form if they have agreed to the delivery via the College electronic information system in their application.

The decision on admission or non-admission to study is delivered to other applicants using the postal operator services following the §69a of the Act.

Article 8

Special Admission Conditions

Following the §49, par.3 of the Act, NEWTON College Chancellor may decide on the applicants' admission to study without passing all parts of the admission procedure in case of a completed study program or its part at a college in the Czech Republic or abroad. The applicants may also be admitted in case of a completed accredited training program or its part at a tertiary professional school or in case they are studying an accredited training program in a tertiary professional school in the Czech Republic or abroad.

In such a case, the application shall contain at least:

- a. the overview of courses completed, including the results of examinations (extracts of study results) confirmed by the relevant other higher education institution;
- b. the syllabi of completed courses.

Upon admission to study, the applicant referred to in par.1 may, at his/her request, be recognized examinations completed in the course of previous studies. The applicant may subsequently enroll in the first of a higher grade of NEWTON College following the NEWTON College Study and Examination Regulations.

Article 9

Study Enrollment

Following the §51 of the Act, the applicants admitted to study are entitled to enroll in studies. The applicants enroll within the deadline stipulated by NEWTON College.

The study enrollment is held at NEWTON College premises, and the applicant is obliged to come personally unless otherwise stipulated by the College.

If the applicant excuses from the enrollment for studies no later than five days after the expiry of the deadline for enrollment, he/she can enroll in the study on an additional date. The Chancellor announces the additional date of enrollment for studies.

The condition for enrolling an applicant for the study is the payment of the study fees at a private higher education institution following the Study Agreement following the §59 of the Act.

Article 10

Tuition Fees

Students studying at NEWTON College in accredited degree programs are required to pay the tuition and other fees.

The tuition fees are determined by the Statutory Body of NEWTON College for individual study programs according to the forms of study or according to individual specializations of these study programs.

The amount of tuition fees is a part of a College Study Agreement concluded between a student and NEWTON College. During the term of this contractual relationship, any amendment to the tuition fee is possible only after being agreed by both the contractual parties. The College Study Agreement further regulates the rights and obligations of the contractual parties, including the student's obligation to pay additional study fees at NEWTON College, the consequences of failure to meet the obligations of the parties, including the consequences of failure to pay tuition fees or other study fees at NEWTON College.

The procedure for collecting tuition and other fees, as well as the procedure for settling claims related to study at NEWTON College, is regulated by other NEWTON College standards.

Article 11

The Course of Study, Scholarships

The course and completion of studies, including the evaluation of study results, are governed by the NEWTON College Study and Examination Regulations.

During studies, the student is obliged to avoid any fraudulent behavior, especially violations of copyrights, plagiarism, and unauthorized use of aids in the verification of study results. Violation of this obligation the student shall be liable to sanction following the Disciplinary Regulations of NEWTON College, as well as generally applicable legislation of the Czech Republic.

The conditions, procedures, and rules for awarding scholarships, as well as the methods of their payment, are governed by the NEWTON College Scholarship Regulations.

Study programs in a foreign language are conducted according to the rules identical to the rules of study programs in Czech.

In the case of a foreign-language study program, the entire admission procedure is carried out in the appropriate language, and adequate study support is available, including the NEWTON College internal regulations and standards, information and study resources, and study support. Internship, final theses, their assessments, as well as state final examinations, are conducted in a foreign language either.

Article 12

Study Documents

Following the §57 of the Act, evidence of study at NEWTON College is a student's ID card, a student's record of study, and a certificate of study.

The NEWTON College student's ID card is represented by an NC ISIC card for full-time students and an NC ALIVE card for students of the distance study program issued by NEWTON College.

NEWTON College electronic information system (also referred to as IS of NC) keeps a study record in the form of an "e-index", the data of which is adequately secured against unauthorized intervention.

In the case of the distance study program students, the record of study may also be kept in paper form. In the event of a discrepancy between the paper and electronic data provided, the electronic form is considered valid unless proven otherwise.

Evidence of the completion of the study program at NEWTON College is following the §57 et seq. the Higher Education Act, in particular a College Diploma, a Diploma Supplement, and a Certificate of Completed Examinations. The evidence of the completion of part of the study is a record of passed exams.

NEWTON College may require an administrative fee to be paid in case of issuing evidence of studies or evidence of completion of studies at NEWTON College, including the issue of an extract from the academic certificate officially certified by the College, replacement documents, and duplicates of previously issued documents.
